No specific plate code is required to run any MO tag, with the exception of temporary tags (TM) or dealer tags (DL). The plate number is all that is required – no expiration needed. If you are running a VIN through MO though, you have to enter the year and NCIC make code of the vehicle to get a response.